To Whom It May Concern:

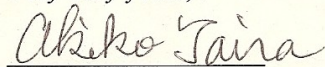

It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Jonathan Green. I have worked with Jon for two years, and I hold him in the highest regard both personally and professionally.

In his position as an English Teacher, Jonathan has been employed by our prefectural Board of Education from 2005 to 2007 in a full time capacity. Jonathan has done an excellent job in this position and has been a real asset to our organization. He has excellent written and verbal communication skills, is extremely organized, can work independently or with others and is able to follow through to ensure that the job gets done.

During his time with our school, Jonathan has been responsible for preparing English lessons, teaching classes, coaching speech teams, and encouraging students to enjoy the English language in their free time. Jonathan's self-motivation and keen desire to learn whatever is necessary for his work is truly appreciated, as we have a working environment that doesn't lend itself to close supervision. In addition, Jonathan is a polite, responsible, sincere, and an all-around respectable young man.

It has been my great pleasure to have Jonathan as an employee. I regret that he will be leaving Japan so soon. I know he will be an asset to his future employer, and I would recommend him for any endeavor he chooses to pursue.

Very truly yours,
